

Welcome to the latest edition of the AMS newsletter. This one covers both June and July

Important Announcements

Subscriptions for 2022/23 are now overdue. If you haven't yet paid. It's time to raid the piggy bank. Payment of £30.00 for the year will be accepted on or before the next Shedd's meeting on 1st July 2022. Bank transfers, cheques and cash are all welcome. Unfortunately, we can't yet accept Crypto currency or IOUs.

There will be a brainstorming session at Shedd's meeting on 1st July. The aim is to generate ideas for future activities. These can include things that are easy to do now, whereas others may need more thought and time to arrange.

You will need to bring your thoughts and ideas. No idea is too crazy to be included. Often one idea can trigger others that may be more workable.

Summer BBQ

The summer BBQ on 11th June was well-attended and a great success. There are lots of photos but unfortunately they can't be published because of data protection regulations

Projects

Things are quiet on this front. In the meantime, members have been busy working on their own personal projects or helping others with theirs. Remember, if you have something you want to make, mend, build or adapt, there's lots of help around. If you have any ideas for community projects, please talk to Dave or bring it up at the next Shedders' meeting on 1st July.
